Savant Capital Management Recognized by Barron's and Forbes
Ranked among America's top independent wealth management firms

ROCKFORD, IL (October 10, 2017) – Savant Capital Management, a nationally-recognized fee-only wealth management firm headquartered in Rockford, IL, has been recognized by Barron's as one of the top independent advisory firms in the nation and by Forbes, naming the firm's CEO as one of America's top wealth advisors.

Barron's, an American weekly newspaper that reports on current financial information, market developments, and relevant statistics, has named Savant #22 on its list of the Top 30 Registered Investment Advisory Firms. The list is based on several factors that speak to the firms' ability to provide broad and consistent services to clients. All the firms' filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission were used to cross-check the data provided to Barron's. Click here to view the complete list of honorees.

American business magazine, Forbes, ranked Savant CEO Brent Brodeski #40 on its 2017 list of America's Top Wealth Advisors. Brodeski earned the #50 spot in 2016. The ranking, developed by SHOOK Research, is designed to fairly compare the business practices of a large group of advisors from the financial services industry including registered investment advisors like Savant, along with banks, brokerages, custodians, insurance companies, and others. More than 19,000 nominations were received, with 200 advisors chosen. Neither Forbes nor SHOOK received a fee in exchange for rankings.
